BECAUSE

"It will help to bring our boys home again with Victory for our cause. At the same time every dollar adds a permanent stone in the foundation of a loyal and patriotic institution for developing, educating, Americanizing a hitherto neglected and too often exploited group of native born American citizens for a better, broader, saner, more civil, more reasonable Post-War World."

"THE FIRST THOUSAND."!

The story of the 10th War Bond to Endow Frelinghuysen University.
BOND NO. 1, MAY 29, 1941.

"The United States Defense Bond to which this writing is affixed, is the personal and voluntary contribution of Anna J. Cooper, retiring president of Frelinghuysen University, for an Endowment Fund. It is given in the hope and with the expectation and expressed desire that a drive be inaugurated by the National Association of Frelinghuysen Loyal Sons and Daughters to invest in like manner in U. S. Bonds by purchasing War Stamps with every dollar contributed until the amount of $75 is reached to purchase a Series F One Hundred Dollar Bond applicable to universities.
